Corporal Suzette opened the meeting with grace, the Four Way Test and a toast to South Africa.

Pete had a number of presidential announcements:-

- Sadly, he had to inform us of the recent death of IPDG Kevin Dersley's father.
- On a happier note he went on to advise us of the engagement of Barry & Gill's oldest daughter, Louise, in the UK.
- He thanked all who had arranged and attended the club's recent fellowship outing to Mokala Park. He especially thanked those responsible for the clement weather. By all accounts a great time was had by all, as evidenced by the photos recently published on our FaceBook page.
- Lists were circulated for attendance at our forthcoming Race Night, and for Janine's induction dinner.

Serjeant Gill reminded us of our Dates and Duties. Following which Ken announced an attendance of 100%!

Corporal Suzette fed TRF's coffers by means of an assortment of letters received by Edgars' accounts department.

Finally, Suzette closed the meeting with her tail piece:-

"Fault finding is like window washing; all the dirt seems to be on the other side."
