Janine, having totally ignored your scribe as an integral part of her Fellowship duty, opened the meeting with grace, the Four Way Test and a toast to South Africa.

President Pete thanked all who had supported our Diamond Stakes Night at the Races. By all accounts it was a great success, and enquiries are already coming in as to when the next one will be held. [See inside for a selection of photographs taken by Amanda.]

Serjeant Gill dispatched the Dates and Duties, and reminded us that there would be no meeting on 17 June since it is a public holiday.

Ken reported a creditable attendance of 20/23 for 87%.

Janine helped swell our contribution to The Rotary Foundation by the sneaky expedient of relating a number of misdemeanors supposedly committed by various members. Needless to say, most of her “accusations” would not have seen the light of day if she didn’t have the might of a local legal firm behind her.

Rtn Hugh McGibbon then entertained us with a great selection of photographs taken at the club’s recent fellowship outing to Mokala Park. Looking at the wide selection of photographic subjects, both human and animal, one can only ask “who was watching whom?”. One thing that became apparent was that, generally speaking, the animals were better behaved than the Rotarians.

Last meeting’s attendance—87%
