Sadness fills my heart and spills from my eyes. A man, a leader, a legend dies. Forgiveness, compassion, colour blind... A Nation, a world, mourning stays behind.

We are expecting the arrival of an Exchange Student in January. Anyone who would like to be a host should please contact President Janine.

We welcome a new Rotarian to our club [yay for us]. Ms Bettina Dauberman was inducted during the meeting.

Sergeant Barry thanked Peter T and Corlia for their example of fellowship at the meeting before going through the duties for the coming week.

He also provided an update on Vivian Kriel, who suffered a stroke on Thursday, and Ken who underwent a quadruple heart bypass. Our thoughts and prayers are with them both.

After digressing a bit by discussing the different types of grumpiness, Barry explained why time seems to fly for the older members. Apparently it has to do with forgetting where one put one's watch and diary.

Stand-in attendance officer, Peter T, put the numbers at 17 of 21, or 81%.

Corporal Pete concluded the meeting with a joke [at least we hope it was a joke] about how a boy, choking after swallowing coins, was saved by a mysterious woman. She then revealed that she worked for SARS and could "squeeze and twist" money out of anyone.

Meeting Report: 02 December 2013

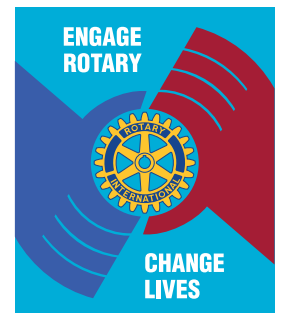

Corporal Pete opened the meeting with Grace, the four way test and a toast to South Africa.

The following announcements were made:

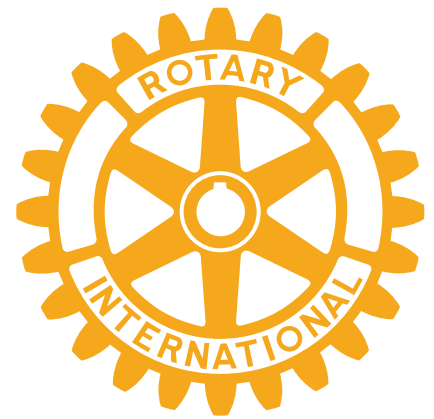

The golf day is scheduled to take place on 14 March 2014. Please think of sponsors, who will be approached early in the new year.

Raffle books are available. Each book contains 6 tickets. Since South had returned their booklets, Barry [cheekily] suggested that we donate ours to them in the Spirit of Rotary.
