Meeting Report: 20 January 2014

After welcoming guests Shirley and Gordon Dally, President Janine set the meeting in motion.

Corporal Dwayne said grace and reminded everyone of the 4-way test before toasting South Africa.

The only two Presidential announcements:

- A reminder of the board meeting after the meeting; and
- Reminder of the Nappy Run on Saturday, 25 January, starting at the Virgin Active.

Sergeant Gill went about her duties and even found time to remind Ken to get his wife something for their anniversary.

Hugh gave an update on the Golf Day that takes place on 14 March. He also requested volunteers to join the committee to assist. Once the forms are completed, Hugh will email the list to the club members who are requested to then indicate which sponsors they are willing and able to approach.

Suggestions were welcomed as to the sponsor prices per hole, ranging from R200 to R1000.

Further details regarding the Golf Day will be communicated in due course.

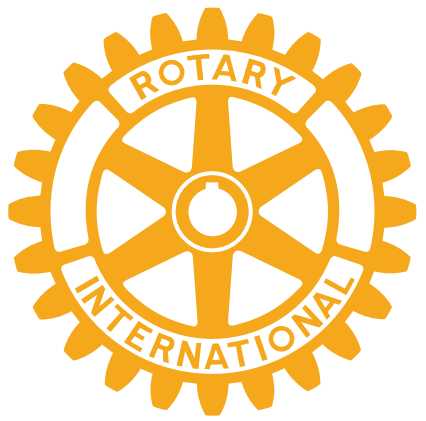

The friendship dinner wooden spoon has changed hands to the new hosts. Everyone is requested to please keep it going.

Corporal Dwayne shared some witty comebacks to pickup lines before asking "what if there were no hypothetical questions?" He closed off with a quote from Socrates:

"The only true wisdom is in knowing you know nothing."
