Meeting Report: 14 July 2014

President André welcomed Rotarians and guests (Maryna Thomas, Johnny van Niekerk, Helena Jacobs and Dries van Tonder).

Corporal Allison shared a humorous prayer she heard at school before leading the 4-way test and saying grace.

Announcements by President André included:

Congratulations to Gill for receiving a certificate from the DG for her service.

The Club would like to thank everyone for their assistance in making the Rotary Health Day such a success, especially to “head boy” Pete.

Board meetings will take place on Thursday evenings.

Night at the Races tickets are available from Bettina.

All [were] encouraged to be at the airport for Maddy’s arrival on Thursday [17 July] at 10:30. Furthermore, all are welcome to attend the welcoming brunch on the Erasmi Farm on 26 July 2014.

Anyone wishing to attend the Christmas in July should contact Bettina for tickets.

Sergeant Gill read through the duties of the coming week before attendance officer Ken put the figures at 18 of 22, or 81.8%.

Peter T announced the FIFA 2014 sweepstakes winner. A total of 27 entries were received. First 11 and then 5 fell out following the semi-finals. This left 10 entries for the final. With 7 entries for a German win, it was a tight finish. The spoils go to Janine with the exact score of 1-0 to Germany.

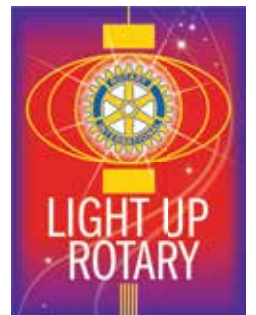

President André reminded everyone of Hugh’s email regarding blankets for Mandela Day, and that Christina Kiddie was suggested.

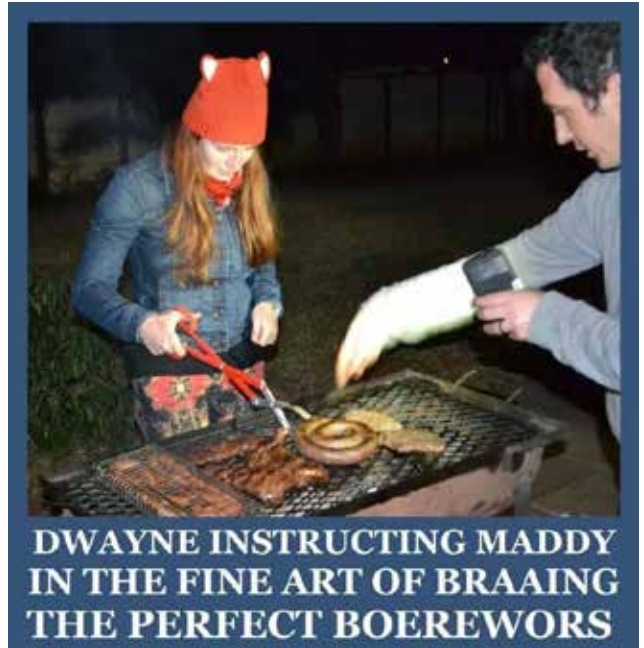

Corporal Allison addressed the semantics of “complete” and “finished”. When you marry the right person you are complete. When you marry the wrong person you are finished. When you are caught you are completely finished.

She closed off with the following tailpiece:

“Things don’t have to change the world to be important.”

Ken relayed a fictional story of how a second opinion could sometimes not be the best idea.

Clockwise from top left: Maddy with Mr and Mrs Letsedi shortly after her arrival in Kimberley. Peter T introduces a nervous looking Maddy to Barry. The next two images were "stolen" off the Facebook group... Their captions explain it all.

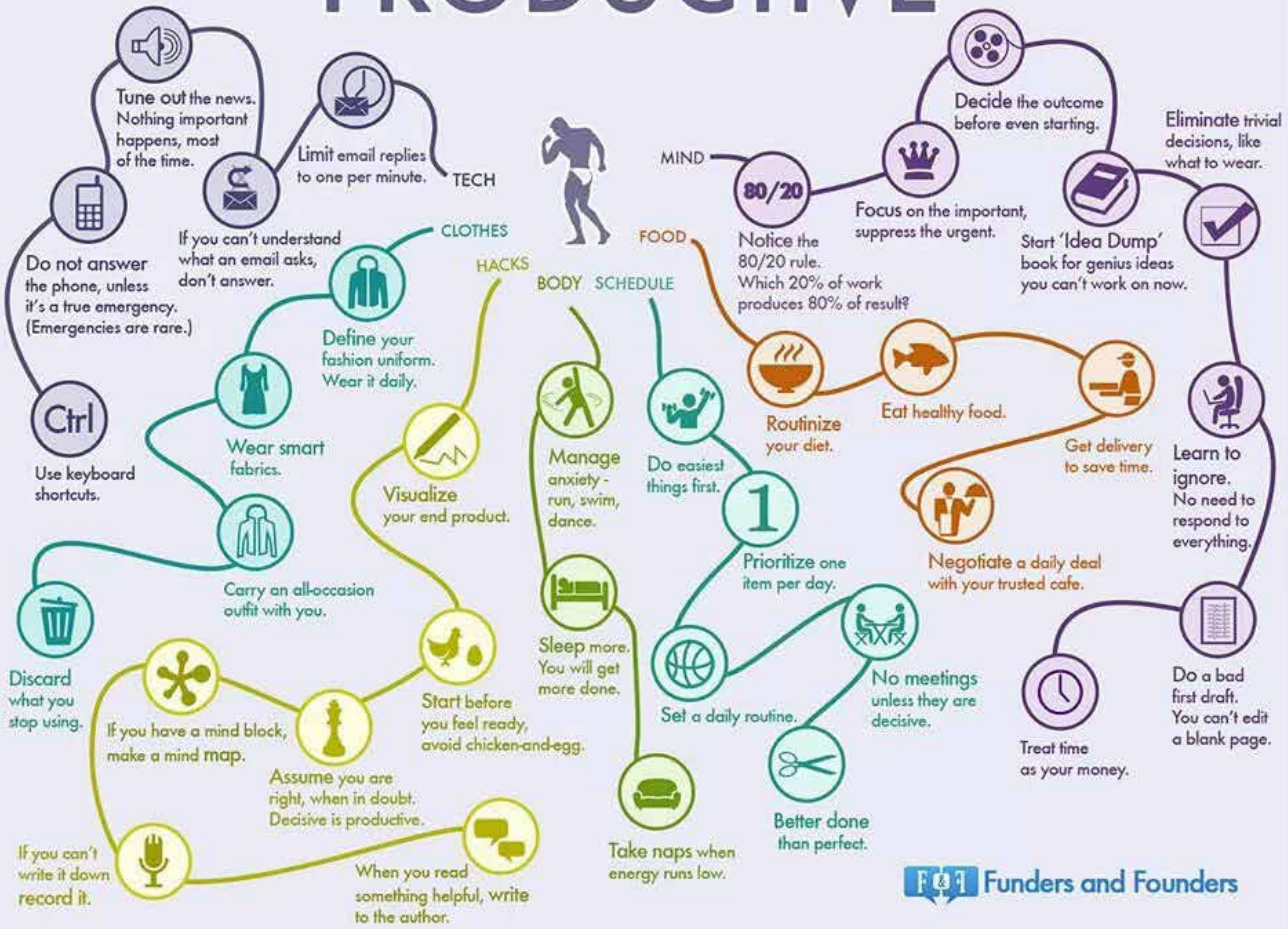

As discussed in a previous meeting, each Rotarian should attempt to host Maddy for dinner. The following schedule has been prepared to assist:
