Meeting Report: 04 August 2014

After President Andre welcomed Rotarians and guests, Corporal Hugh said grace and reminded all of the 4-way test. He went on to toast South Africa and the success at the Commonwealth Games.

Announcements from President Andre:

- Congratulations to Jennilee on the birth of her son, Ethan. He weighed in at 3,15kg.
- We need to pick up sales of the Night at the Races (Kimberley Diamondstakes) tickets.
- No board meeting report back due to low attendance. The minutes will be emailed and can be discussed at a following meeting in an open discussion format.

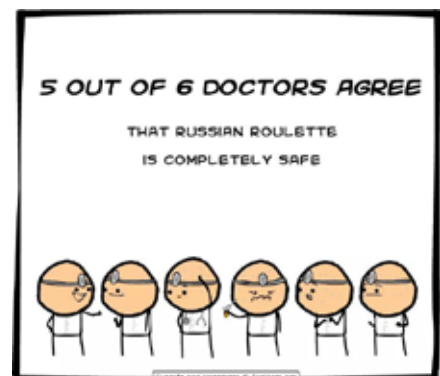

With the announcements handled, we welcomed Johnny van Niekerk as a new member. Johnny is new to Kimberley and was part of the Rotary Club of Welkom.

With Gill and Ken absent, Stand-in Sergeant / Attendance Office Peter T went through the list of duties before putting the attendance at 12 of 23, or 52.5%.

Corporal Hugh, someone known for constant traveling, relayed the story he was told by a passenger who was on-board the recent turbulence affect SAA flight to Hong Kong.

According to the handsome passenger, he felt it his duty to make one of the panicked female passengers feel like a woman (at her request). As he slowly made his way to the female passenger, he took off his shirt and trousers. Standing in front of the woman, staring into her eyes, he said "Iron these".

The tailpiece comes courtesy of Henry Ford: "If I asked what my customers wanted, they would've said a faster horse."

Monday to Thursday: Crossfit

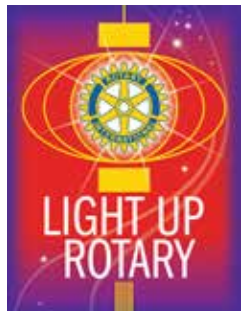

Wednesday: Choir Rehearsal

Thursday & Friday: Play Practice

Saturday: RYE Orientation (Bloemfontein)
