Meeting Report: 29 September 2014

Peter T got the meeting started with an apology from President André running a tad bit late. He welcomed Steve Smith as guest and fellow Rotarians.

Corporal Johnny said grace and led the 4-way test before toasting South Africa and the United States of America.

With President André's arrival, he profusely apologised for being late. He continued by welcoming Steve Smith and made the following announcements:

- DG Dinner: The dinner has been postponed. Suggested date of 3 November to be confirmed.
- Christina Kiddie handover: Two dates are proposed (25 Oct & 08 Nov). The handover will be in the theme of a kids party and the left over stock from the Night Cycle Race can be used.
- The district grant documents have been submitted and feedback is expected soon.

- Night Cycle Race - posters will be available tomorrow (Tuesday, 30 Sep). President André will put the posters up at high traffic areas (such as Pick 'n Pay, Spar, etc.).
- School bags: President André purchased a sample bag from Ackerman's. He will confirm sizes. Peter T agrees that personalisation of bags with nametags would work.

Attendance Officer Ken announced the resignation of Jennilee and Div before listing the various apologies. The figures for the day: 14 of 20, or 70%.

Stand-in Sergeant Barry went through the duties for the coming week.

In a requested spot, Pete invited everyone to attend the North Cape High's Wine Tasting evening at only R200 per person. For more information, please contact Amanda.

Corporal Johnny had some interesting, and mostly "useless" (in his words), facts such as: All cars in the USA honk in the note of F.

Ken provided the tailpiece:

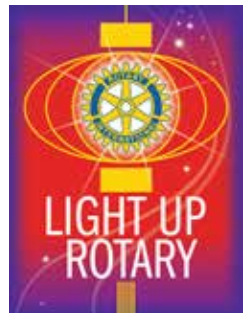

During a talk on how to live in a loving relationship with your husband, a relationship guru advised the audience (consisting of women) to text their husbands "I love you". When the replies were received they read out some of the interesting, and shocking, responses. These ranged from "Who is this?!" to "Did you crash the car again?".
