Meeting Report: 13 October 2014

President André welcomed fellow Rotarians to the meeting. Corporal Sharon said grace, reminded everyone of the four-way test and led a toast to South Africa and the USA.

Announcements from the President included:

The bags for Christina Kiddie have been collected.

Everyone is encouraged to obtain sponsors for the Night Cycle Race, forms have been emailed.

The Potjiekos fellowship on 01 November is at the Aquatic Club.

Following some good fellowship at the tables during lunch, Attendance Officer

Ken announced the figures as 14 of 20, or 70%. That with Hugh having unapologised and attending the meeting.

Ken requested that fellow Rotarians assist with 2 Weber braais for the Night Cycle Race. Johnny and Sharon volunteered the use of theirs.

Strangely enough, Maddy has not been to the Open Mine Museum (Big Hole) yet. Following the meeting next Monday [today], Ken will be taking Maddy to the Big Hole. Anyone interested is welcome to join them.

Stand-in Sergeant Peter T went through the duties for the coming week.

Corporal Sharon told a story of a little man having a really bad day and a biker at the end of his.

She closed off the meeting with the following tailpiece from John C Maxwell:

“By being around people better than ourselves is how we better ourselves.”

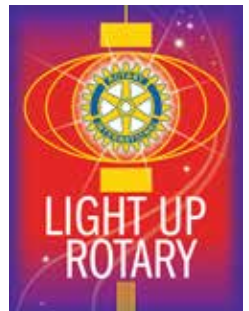

This week:

Monday - Friday: Crossfit

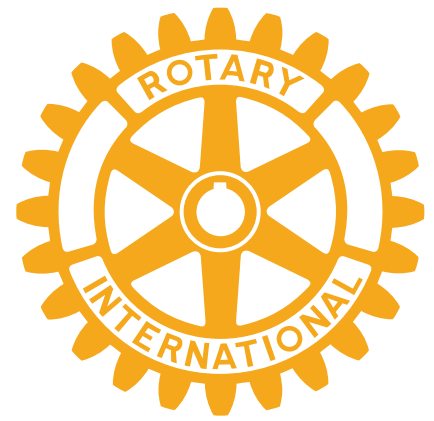

Wednesday: Choir Rehearsal
