Meeting Report: 27 October 2014

Acting President Janine welcomed Maddy, Kristin and fellow Rotarians to the meeting. Corporal Jannie said grace, reminded everyone of the four-way test and raised a glass to South Africa.

Announcements from the Acting President's desk included:

- The induction of the Girls' High Interact President that took place (photos in previous Griqua)
- The Christina Kiddie handover went well and was well received by the children. Thanks to everyone who assisted and was there on the day.
- Tree of Joy: There are 114 children, as the Greenpoint centre has closed. Suggestion from the floor: add Christina Kiddie. The cut-off age was discussed as well as a price limit of R100 per gift. It was also decided that the house mothers / social workers / responsible persons shall be briefed regarding the limit.

Attendance Officer Ken listed the apologies received before putting the final figure at 17 of 21 (81%).

Sergeant Peter T went through the duties of the coming week before granting a spot to Pete.

Pete discussed the arrangements for the fellowship on 01 November. Bettina will SMS the attendees.

Barry: Gill requires assistance with arranging Lawrie's party. Any assistance will be greatly appreciated.

All Rotary branding will be transferred to the President. This follows the small Rotary sign that remained behind (and ended up in the back of Barry's bakkie) after the Night Cycle Race.

Allison gave a rundown of the Christina Kiddie handover. Specific thanks went out to Peter T (nametags), Sharon (dictionaries and assistance), Ken (sponsorship from the Education Trust), Bettina (school bag collection from Potch), Janine (assistance) and finally to André and Barry for being present.

Corporal Jannie explained how magic actually works with an example of three bread rolls.

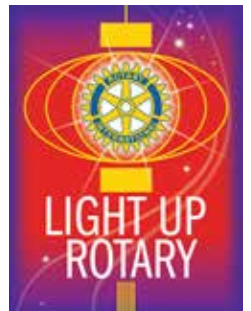

He closed off the meeting with the following tailpiece:

"We can't all help everyone... but everyone can help someone."

This week Maddy continues her tour of South Africa with fellow Exchange Students in the District. She will be back on 17 November.
