Meeting Report: 03 November 2014 (By Peter T)

Stand-in President Janine Snyders welcomed everyone to the luncheon, including our six guests from the Kimberley Girls High School Interact Club - Naadira Mookrey, Amina Feltman, Ammaarah Ahmed, Diolintle Malebogo, Maryoum Keraan and Radhiyyah Hassan.

Hugh McGibbon gave a very interesting talk on the coal silo that collapsed at the Majuba Power Station and how Eskom is balancing the situation of the lower power output with the demand of the consumer. A brisk question and answer session followed.

Rotary business that was conducted at the meeting included:

- Tree of Joy cards are being distributed

- Rotarians are urged to encourage their family and friends to take part in this worthwhile project.

- Rotarians are reminded of the District Governor's visit on 17th November. Official invitations will be distributed soon.

- The Herlear Transport roster for the aged was discussed and finalised.

- Budding journalists are being sought to write the weekly lunch report (the one you are currently reading). It is not a big task and will be needed every four or five weeks. Please consider this request carefully, as it will really ease the task of the Griqua editor.

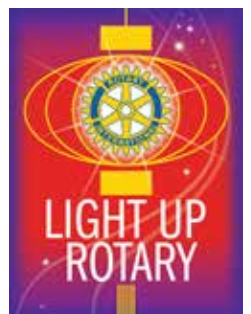

After Sgt Gill and the attendance officer did their duties, it was time to hand the floor to Cpl Allison. She told a most amusing story about security in South Africa, which managed to drag Eskom into the punchline as well.

After a delicious dessert was enjoyed, Acting Pres. Janine thanked everyone for their attendance and Cpl Allison closed with the tailpiece: "If in doubt whether you should or shouldn't - don't!"

Hey everyone! The tour is going great so far! We went the Cango Caves and Ostrich Farm yesterday [04 Nov] and have the usual long and hectic bus rides. Everyone on this trip have been so insightful and I can already sense that we will grow closer in friendship as this tour progresses. It has been such a wonderful experience so far, and I cannot wait to tell you all about it when I get back! Have a lovely week and best wishes!

Your little American, Maddy
