Meeting Report: 04 May 2015 (by Bettina Daubermann)

President Andre welcomed all Rotarians to the meeting, which was followed by Corporal Johnny leaving the Club in the Four Way Test and grace. A toast was once again raised to South Africa and the USA.

Announcements were made by President Andre, which included the following: the Club would host a Golf Day in early 2016 and an upcoming trail event would be arranged with Andries Erasmus. Rotarians were reminded to bring any sponsorships that were collected for the Interact Conference.

AO Ken announced an 83.3% attendance. Peter Thomas stood in as Sergeant for ADG Gill and announced the upcoming duties, birthdays and anniversaries. This included Ken Quinn's birthday on the 8th May. Amanda Van Zyl arrived just in time to update the Club of arrangements for the Interact Conference. It was indicated that approximately 70 indicated their intent to attend. Amanda invited Rotarians to organise gift sponsors for guest speakers. Lawrie Shuttleworth took up the opportunity and declared that Amanda had found her sponsor.

Tailpiece: Success is a lazy teacher, it seduces smart people thinking that they can't lose.

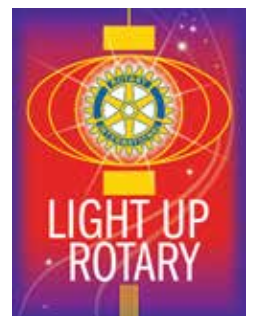

Interact Conference 2015

St Dominic's College (Welkom) walked away with the top honours, while Northern Cape High (Kimberley) and Ferdinand Postma (Potchefstroom) deservedly earned the second and third places.

In the spirit of Rotary, the Ferdinand Postma Interact Club donated their prize money to Schoonspruit, to assist them in starting up their Interact Club.
