Meeting Report: 18 May 2015 (by Johnny van Niekerk)

Past President Janine welcomed all the rotarians and guests, in particular Werner Strauss from Maxima Autism Centre whom is the guest speaker on the subject of autism.

Corporal Ellison opened with grace and reminded us of the Four Way Test followed by a toast on SA and the USA.

Because sergeant Gill still had a mouth full we proceeded with attendance by Ken who reported attendance is 16/19 result 84.2%.

Bettina introduced the guest speaker. Werner Strauss and he proceeded with a short presentation explaining the challenges faced by the kids and their parents in fighting autism and incorrect perceptions. Due to first hand experience and the no support they have started Maxima Autism Centre in Kimberley, which is the only centre of its kind in the N C.

Werner answered some interesting questions put to him at the end of the presentation by the members.

Finally sergeant Gill had her turn to go through the next weeks duties and congratulated Maddy and Liesel on their birthdays this week.

Corporal Ellison ended with a short clip and ended with this tail piece:

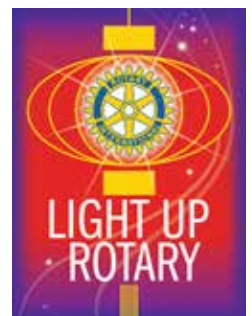

Aging is inevitable, maturing is optional.

P P Janine closed the meeting.

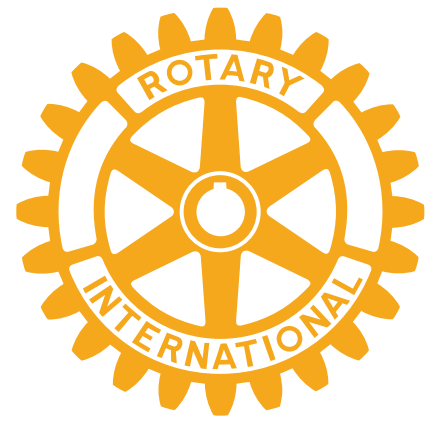

Monday - Friday: Crossfit
