THE R.I. CONVENTION

Rotary's 107th annual International Convention is currently being held in Seoul, Korea. Here are a couple of interesting points regarding the annual International Convention.

Rotary was established in 1905, and held its first annual convention in 1910 in the organization's founding city, Chicago, IL – United States.

This convention will be Rotary's second in Korea. The first took place in 1989 with 38,878 participants.

More than 50,000 Rotary members from around the world are expected to attend this year's convention, injecting an estimated US$248.6 million into the local economy.

The Rotary International Convention is often described as a "mini-United Nations" because of its internationality. Rotary has about 34,000 Rotary clubs in over 200 countries and geographic regions.

Many convention-goers wear traditional attire from their homelands and enjoy sharing their cultures with fellow Rotary members from around the world, as well as the people of the host city.

The Rotary Club of Seoul was chartered in 1927.

Korea is the fourth largest Rotary country in the world, with 64,149 members belonging to 1,625 clubs.

The 2017 convention will be in Atlanta, Georgia.
