Meeting Report: 29 June 2015 (by Peter T)

Corporal Corlia van Tonder opened the meeting with the Rotary Grace, the 4-Way Test and a toast to South Africa, Germany and the USA.

Acting President Janine Snyders welcomed guests Ronnie Bruce (our guest speaker), Benda Booth, the one-and-only exchange student Maddy and short-exchange student Barbara Winklman – who was given the opportunity to introduce herself to the Club.

The only business from the top table was a report that AG Gill and Ken Quinn had attended the induction of the Rotary Club of Kimberley South president the previous week.

Attendance Officer Ken reported on attendance figures for the meeting, which stood at 66.7%. Sergeant Gill announced the upcoming week's activities, duties and celebrations. She also extended the Club's sympathies to the Evans family on the recent passing of Dwayne's grandmother.

Bettina took a "spot" to inform the Club that AhnaCole (the new incoming Long Term Exchange Student) would be arriving in Kimberley on 16 July.

Corporal Corlia delegated her fines duty to exchange student Maddy, who regaled the club with some humorous inscriptions on headstones in cemeteries around the world. Fines were collected to benefit Rotary Foundation.

Barry Downs then introduced our guest speaker Ronnie Bruce, who gave a most interesting talk about her trip to Matjiesfontein and Sutherland with her late husband, Randall. She described the region from various viewpoints, including its geographical, spiritual, architectural, agricultural and military histories. Of great interest was the aspect of astronomy, for which Sutherland is world famous. Ronnie was thanked by Bettina for the enthusiasm with which Ronnie spoke about these two Karoo towns.

After dessert, Acting Pres. Janine thanked our guests for attending and the Corporal closed the meeting with the tailpiece: "A college professor is someone who talks while other people sleep".

This is Maddy's final week in South Africa. The time has flown since meeting an overwhelmed teen at the airport a year ago. It's been a great pleasure to have hosted you Maddy, and we wish you all the best. Safe travels, and come back to visit soon!
