Meeting Report: 02 November 2015

by Brenda Booth

President Andre Chaired the meeting. After he had opened the meeting Corporal Barrie in his own inimitable way said grace and before toasting South Africa reminded all of the four-way test.

Peter Thomas announced that Gill Quin had won the Rugby World Cup Prediction Competition.

President Andre asked for nominations for District Governor. As no one came forward there was a tongue in cheek nomination for Pete van Zyl. He (luckily) was not present.

President Andre announced a Board meeting on the 12th.

The fellowship on 14 November will now take place at the van Zyl's House instead of the Aquatic Club.

The Tree of Joy cards were circulated. There are still a number of them remaining.

Ken, the attendance officer, told the meeting that he had received apologies from Clayton, Sharon and Pete. Sergeant Brenda announced upcoming duties and anniversaries.

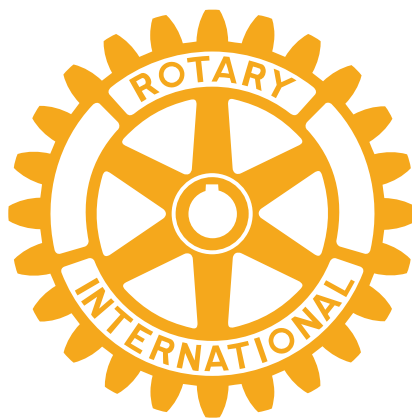

The delegates to training in Bloemfontein were named – Bettina, Dwayne, Corlia, Pete and Colleen.

Barrie entertained the meeting with video and audio clips.

Be a gift to the world
