Meeting Report: 16 November 2015

by Dwayne Evans

President Andre chaired the meeting and welcomed fellow Rotarians, Mary Ann Daubermann, who will be hosting Ahna in 2016, and Sharon de Villiers (a prospective member). Corporal Luzan said grace and recited the Four-Way test before raising a glass to South Africa, the USA and France.

Sergeant Brenda went through the upcoming duties and celebrations. She also reminded everyone to please hand the Tree of Joy gifts to herself or Colleen (or if more convenient, to drop them off at Janine) as soon as possible.

Corporal Luzan entertained with some jokes about children and their parents. The tailpiece related went about having the guts to take risks, as that is what we were made for, and not to always play it safe.

Attendance Officer Ken announced a 100% attendance, to the applause of the club.

Ahna delighted everyone with a presentation about the Rotary Cape Tour. She explained the challenges of having to stay in a bus with 16 other exchange students.

She even nearly pronounced Oudtshoorn correctly, proving that she's slowly becoming South African.

She enjoyed everything from Robin Island (and missing Mandela's cell), cheese tasting and waterfall jumping to spelunking (caving) and ostrich riding (she did, however, not ride an ostrich...). Her friends couldn't believe that Africa, the hottest continent, had penguins.

She even met someone from her home town who was also on exchange (although he is in Zimbabwe).

She thanked everyone for making the tour possible. "The closer I got to Kimberley, the bigger my smile got. I missed everyone here so much."

The meeting closed with a quick run down of the talks and report backs for the upcoming meetings.
