Meeting Report: 23 November 2015

by Dwayne Evans

President Andre welcomed fellow Rotarians and guests, Bronwyn van Tonder and Sharon de Villiers, to the meeting. Corporal Clayton recited the Four-Way Test, said grace and toasted South Africa and the USA.

Barry, Bettina and Dwayne gave feedback on the Rotary Leadership Institute training which took place in Bloemfontein. General consensus is that the training is very informative and worthwhile. Barry gave a quick summary of the program for the day with emphasis on how Rotary is moving to a more digital space. Bettina explained the activities that took place and how the foundation works. Dwayne explained how the different members added to fellowship and how these sessions are not only limited to Rotarians. It was an interactive experience that was great fun. A discussion took place regarding the similarities between this RLI training and POETS. Although similar, RLI training is more focussed towards all members. In future the first training will take place at the same time as the second to make it easier for more Rotarians to attend.

Bronwyn thanked the club for the opportunity to take part in the Short term exchange programme. She invited everyone to see her off at Kimberley Airport on Sunday, 29 November. She'll be returning to South Africa on 17 January 2016.

Sergeant Brenda went through the upcoming duties and celebrations. She also requested that all Tree of Joy gifts be handed in ASAP (before Friday 28 November).

Attendance Officer Ken put the figures at 15/19 or 78.9%.

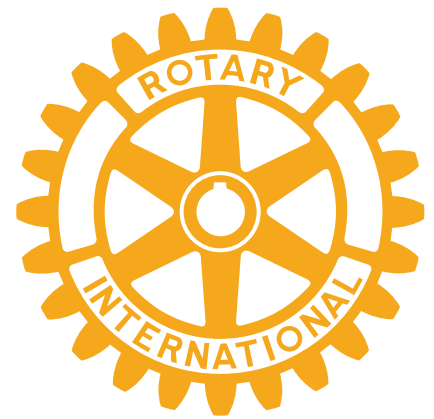

Corporal Clayton shared a few jokes before finishing off with the following tailpiece:

“If you want a good wife, be a good husband.
If you want a good friend, be a good friend.”

Be a gift to the world
