THE TWELVE DELUSIONS OF A ROTARIAN

Make sure that you do not fall for these misconceptions

1. It doesn't matter if I miss the meeting today. No one will miss me.
2. It doesn't matter if I leave the meeting early. The president won't be embarrassed and the speaker shouldn't be offended.
3. I could make up a missed meeting somewhere, but nobody knows me at the other club and I probably would not be welcomed.
4. It is just another committee meeting and I can't contribute much anyhow.
5. Club bulletin editor? That's too hard. I'd rather be club secretary!
6. What do I matter? There are 1,200,000 other Rotarians. Let one of them do it.
7. What does our club matter? There are 33,000 others. Let one of them do it.
8. Surely we don't need to do it now. Let's wait till next week.
9. Why wear my Rotary pin? Nobody will notice and it won't help promote Rotary or Rotary's objectives.
10. I don't need to attend district meetings or Rotary Conventions. I already know all I need to know.
11. The district governor doesn't have much to do. All that is necessary is to visit all the clubs and give the same speech with increased sincerity each time
12. The club president doesn't have anything to do either, except to preside at the club meetings in order to be certain that everyone gets out on time - and ring the bell forcefully.
