STELLENBOSCH NEWS

Good morning Rotarians.

I just wanted to share an update after a few weeks of being back in Stellenbosch.

The second semester has been quite hectic as the intensity and volume of work has increased. Although there are some students back in Stellenbosch, the University has now decided that the rest of the academic year will be based online.

There are however students who may go on campus for research purposes with special permission. The campus is very much 'verlaat' but there is still some movement of students who come together to study or grab a cup of coffee.

Thanks again for your assistance with my studies. It is much appreciated.

Regards, Kopano Makoloi

Kopano matriculated in 2019 from St. Patrick's CBC and it currently studying Conservation Ecology at Stellenbosch University. The Kimberley Rotary Education Trust assists her financially at university - Ed.
