Rotarians in Business & Professions

The Declaration of Rotarians in Businesses and Professions was adopted by the Rotary International Council on Legislation in 1989 to provide more specific guidelines for the high ethical standards called for in the Object of Rotary:

As a Rotarian engaged in a business or profession, I am expected to:

1. Consider my vocation to be another opportunity to serve;
2. Be faithful to the letter and to the spirit of the ethical codes of my vocation, to the laws of my country, and to the moral standards of my community;
3. Do all in my power to dignify my vocation and to promote the highest ethical standards in my chosen vocation;
4. Be fair to my employer, employees, associates, competitors, customers, the public, and all those with whom I have a business or professional relationship;
5. Recognize the honour and respect due to all occupations which are useful to society;
6. Offer my vocational talents: to provide opportunities for young people, to work for the relief of the special needs of others, and to improve the quality of life in my community;
7. Adhere to honesty in my advertising and in all representations to the public concerning my business or profession;
8. Neither seek from nor grant to a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded others in a business or professional relationship.

COFFEE CLUB

Derek Preece advises us that, as from 10am on Tuesday 29 September, the Coffee Club will resume its weekly physical meetings.

However, their venue has changed. Henceforth they will be meeting at the RC Kimberley South club room at the KHS Old Boys' club. The entrance is the first driveway on the right in Memorial Road as you drive from the Memorial towards Cape Town.

Corlia van Tonder, Brenda Booth, Barry Downs and Peter Thomas were visiting the Coffee Club before lockdown. Let's discuss the prospect of resuming the fortnightly visits.

We also appeal to the rest of the Rotarians to volunteer for Coffee Club duty if possible. Contact Peter T for more information.

NOTE

In the lockdown period, our Rotary Club meets On-Line. Rotarians and Friends of Rotary are welcome to join. Use the following link to join the meeting just before the published time – see our Calendar overleaf.
